

Kids Science Fair

International Creative Writing & Painting Competition

Deadline

October 23, 2021 (The winners will be announced on 3rd November 2021.)

Age group

Kids: 10-13 YO

Headlines

- Nature, Biodiversity & Health
- Nature Disaster & Our Future
- Deforestation & Health
- Pollution & Health
- Extinction & Health
- Young generation, Nature & Health
- Good Microbes & Health

We are looking for

- Stories (scientific, fictional, novel), non-fictional ideas
- Scientific article

Writing guideline

- Main language is English.
- Each work must not be less than 500 words.
- You should write your name, school name, and contact details.
- It should be your own writing (Please do not copy).
- It must be new ideas; it should not have been published or participated in any other competition.
- Please send files in Microsoft Word format.
- You should choose a relevant topic and develop your idea.

Artwork guideline

- Digital or hand drawing are acceptable.
- Use your own creativity.
- Any size artwork is acceptable if it is based on the subject and is unique.

All of the participants will be awarded a participation certificate. Winners' articles will be appeared in <http://www.onehealth.az>, and published in "BoomZista for Kids" newsletter.

You should send your work as an attachment to contact@onehealth.az.

For more info, you can please contact: +99 (450) 406-1324 .

Organizers

Khazar University, Dunya IB School.

Emina Ibrahimova, Yegana guliyeva & Moozhan Serpoush

The Judging Panel

Irada Khalilova

Associate professor
Rector of Khazar University
Baku, Azerbaijan

Robert Jecklin

Emeritus Faculty in Public Health
University of Wisconsin-La Crosse
Wisconsin, USA

Alireza Golnaraghi

Department of Biodiversity
BoomZista Institute,
Vancouver, BC, Canada
Researcher,
Department of Earth, Ocean & Atmosphere Sciences,
University of British Columbia,
Vancouver, BC, Canada

Javid Ojaghi

Associate professor (Genetics)
Department of Life Sciences, Khazar University
Baku, Azerbaijan

Zahra Sheykhrezaee, MD

Department of Nature & Health,
BoomZista Institute,
Vancouver, BC, Canada